

The acoustic Gathering

DOUG MORTER

JERRY DONAHUE

RAY JACKSON

Lindisfarne, Fairport Convention, Fotheringay, The Hellecasters, The Albion Band, Magna Carta former members of legendary bands of the folk rock genre

Ray Jackson, the voice of Lindisfarne, needs no introduction with hits such as Lady Eleanor, Meet Me On The Corner and Run For Home, and for his original style on both mouth organ and mandolin. Ray is also well known for his contribution to the albums of, amongst others, Rod Stewart and Every Picture Tells a Story (Maggie May and Mandolin Wind).

Jerry Donahue, the “guitarists’ guitarist”, or as the late great Danny Gatton christened him, “the string bending king of the planet”, has also played on the records of many other well known acts including Gerry Rafferty, The Proclaimers, Joan Armatrading, Chris Rea and the Beach Boys.

Doug Morter was also founder member of Hunter Muskett, The Backroom Boys (with JD), and Then Came The Wheel, as well as side man to Richard Digance, Maddy Prior and Michael Chapman, and has been at the heart of the folk rock movement since 1969.

The trio will be performing some of the Lindisfarne classics, material from The Gathering, their remixed CD, and new material from their individual repertoires, on theatre and club dates throughout the year.
